

Father God,

Thank you for Your abundant blessings which have enriched our lives through beautiful friendships and special relationships. Your Grace has allowed us to recognize our transgressions and Your Forgiveness provides a clean slate and fresh start. We acknowledge, Lord, that there are times when our hearts are heavy with what we may perceive to be rejection and insult. Help us to rise above those thoughts and instead, extend love and kindness to the insensitivity of others. Remind us Father, that it is through You, we are blessed each day. Let us be Your hands and feet, Your vessels, spilling over with compassion for others, propping up those who have fallen, and reaching out with your Word. Clothed in the armour of Your Word, Lord, we are ready to battle the enemy when his whispers of rejection and humiliation reach our ears. As Your children, the honour is ours. Let us always be ready to look past the discomfort and remember that we are blessed with the ultimate love and friendship: Yours.

In Jesus' Name we pray,

AMEN
