September: Miss me?

By Peggianne Wright

You may have noticed my absence over the past few weeks (or maybe not - wink*wink*) and for most of you, you'll already know why. After a hiatus of over 3-1/2 years due to Covid, we have travelled back to Arizona to spend time visiting some dear friends and reacquainting ourselves with one of our most beloved places on the planet.

Travelling nearly 6,800 kilometers there and back with 3 fur-kids is something we've done 14 times over the past 12 years and in a recent blog I wrote, 7 Critical Things \(and more\) For a Safe & Fun-filled Fur-Kid Holiday, I provide tips and suggestions for worry-free travel from the experience of our own travel adventures.

With our itinerary crammed with social functions and other fun activities, it has been a whirlwind of activity. But truth be told, I may have missed you more than you've missed me. LOL

This edition will be what I call a "mini" version, but I wanted to get back into the swing of things and reach out and reconnect.

We've slipped into a new season now and with it, Fall brings lots of new and exciting possibilities surrounding the celebration of the harvest and Thanksgiving (although I'm NOT a fan of pumpkin spice).

In the meantime, I hope you'll be sure to visit each category of deTails including: Pampering, Healing, Understanding, and Devotion and explore the few tidbits this abbreviated version has to offer.

Spiritual Scribbles...

Over the past several months I have been contributing to a Facebook group called The Round Farmhouse Ministries. Some pieces have been written with an assigned theme in mind, while others were written from a topic on my heart.

My latest piece, Help!, is one such piece, written from a place where many of us, including myself, struggle.

You can find the entire essay here along with all of my other previous pieces.

New Scheduling!!!

October 2023

I have decided to move release dates to some of my publications in order to allow for more advanced notice, especially with regard to the observances and events that appear on the calendar (click on the calendar to the left for details things coming up in October).

While my Fur-Kid Fancier and Spiritual Scribbles blogs will still be released on the 5th and 21st of the month respectively, the deTails Newsletter will now be published on the 27th of the month thus allowing for advanced notice for upcoming events and observances.

AS ALWAYS...

I want you to know how grateful I am that you're taking time out of your busy day to read deTails. I passionately strive to always fill it with useful, helpful, and uplifting material and hope that each month, you will look forward to receiving the newest edition.

So, thank you once again, for being part of the Paws To Pray Pack.

Until Next Time, Peace/Shalom & God Bless

 Peggianne

Understanding

September is Animal Pain Awareness Month and in my blog, Pain in Your Pooch: 6 Most Common Signs, I identify areas that may reveal that your pet is in pain.

Coming Up

October is Pet Wellness Month and the upcoming edition of deTails will be filled tips and info to help us provide the best ever lives for our fur-kids.

And of course, I'll crack open the Norfolk Nibbles Treat Boutique recipes vault to find a healthy treat alternative that even our waistline-challenged pups will love!

See you next month!

Healing

On September 10th, International Pet Memorial Day was observed. In honour of the beloved fur-kids who've gone to the Rainbow Bridge, I wrote this poem, "Until We Meet Again". Download your free copy to frame as a remembrance or to give as a token of sympathy.

In our Go Fetch Shop you'll also find a grief journal to help deal with the loss of a special fur-kid or family member.

And, to help navigate the grieving process, you'll find useful information at the Association for Pet Loss & Bereavement website.

Until We Meet Again

Until we meet again,
I'll keep a watch on you.
You'll know I'm with you when you look
Toward the heavens blue.

Until we meet again,
for now I must depart.
Remember me with fondest thoughts,
I'm always in your heart.

Until we meet again,
Keep a smile upon your face.
And know that I am free of pain,
in God's most Heavenly place.

Devotion

September 13th was International Pet Birth Defect Awareness Month. As you all are aware, our Jeffrey Bean, born with a non-functioning undeveloped eye is the innocent victim of genetic manipulation in a puppy mill in mid-western Ontario.

Since I was a little short on time (playing in the Valley of the Sun) I found an excellent blog that was written to highlight various causes of birth defects published by Urban Pet Hospital based in Urbandale, Iowa. (They have a fabulous website too!)

Pampering

Sometimes travelling can put your pooch's tummy off. From the NNTB recipe book, Tummy Taming Treats will help calm a queasy belly and relieve the runs caused by stress or improper diet.
