July: Where Do We Go From Here?

By Peggianne Wright

It's so hard to believe that one entire year has passed by since I launched Paws To Pray. When God put this on my heart, He didn't spell out the fine details (LOL) and I'll be the first to admit that there have been some incredibly deep valleys among the few peaks along the way. But, throughout the year, I have connected with some wonderful folks and fur-kids and collected a tiny "pack" of followers, all of whom I cherish! And while all aspects of this endeavour, including the Paws To Pray Website, Facebook Page, Instagram Page, the freebies I create, and articles I write are a labour of love, they are indeed, a labour. But, once my creative juices get flowing, it's hard to stop, nor do I want to. There are so many ideas floating around in my brain that I often overwhelm myself.

I have made the really, really hard decision to "dial back" ever so slightly, the work I'm doing across the entire PtP platform to focus a little on another important project I have bubbling on the back burner. Funny enough, it's one of my original ideas that has been sitting on a shelf for a couple of years now. I hope to make an announcement in the Fall.

So, while I know it's going to be incredibly difficult for me to simplify things a bit over the summer, you'll notice a streamlined version of the summer edition of the newsletter. I pray that you'll still find value in the material I present and that you'll continue to follow me on the Paws To Pray journey.

As always, be sure to visit each category of deTails including: Pampering, Healing, Understanding, and Devotion. There's so much packed in there, you won't want to miss out.

And The Winners Are!

In celebration of Paws To Pray's First Anniversary this month, I am thrilled to announce the winners of our Anniversary Contest!

Happy Canada Day!!!

I love this country and I don't think there's anyone else out there prouder to be a Canadian than I. Having lived more than 6 decades here, I have witnessed so much change and growth, often exciting but sometimes scary and painful, to this magnificent country we call home. Please join me today in praying for the future of our great and glorious county, that we call home.

AS ALWAYS...

I want you to know how grateful I am that you're taking time out of your busy day to read deTails. I passionately strive to always fill it with useful, helpful, and uplifting material and hope that each month, you will look forward to receiving the newest edition.

So, thank you once again, for being part of the Paws To Pray Pack. Sending you many blessings and wishing you and your family all the best this summer!!!!

Stay Safe, Stay Happy & God Bless

Understanding

During the heat of the summer, you may be tempted to let your fur-kids sip a drink from one of those "hydration stations" that seem to be popping up in neighbourhoods everywhere.

But, do you know the risks? You could be subjecting your pooch to some pretty dangerous health risks as well as setting yourself up for a hefty vet bill.

In my article "Top 3 Reasons Why You Should Think Twice About Neighbourhood Water Stations" I uncover the scary facts that will make you walk right on by!

Healing

July 30th, 2023

With love from our house to yours.

Devotion

July is Lost Pet Prevention Month and how fitting when the Canada Day and Independence Day holidays see the highest rates of lost dogs in the entire year.

In my essay Lost Pet Prevention Month: Are You Prepared? I take a look at 9 ways we can ensure the safety of our fur-kids over the holidays.

Next Month

I will be taking a "quasi-sabbatical" over the summer so the August edition of deTails will be a little on the thin side but I know I'll find a few nuggets to include.

Of course, I'll still crack open the Norfolk Nibbles Treat Boutique recipes vault to find a summer favourite that will be sure to tantalize your fur-kids' tastebuds!

See you next month!
